Come and join us!

ALL ARE WELCOME!

HE ASKS SO LITTLE AND GIVES SO MUCH

What must I do to insure peace of mind?
Is the answer I'm seeking, too hard to find?

How can I know what God wants me to be?

How can I tell what's expected of me?
Where can I go for guidance and aid
To help me correct the errors I've made?

The answer is found in doing three things

And great is the gladness that doing them brings...

"Do Justice" - "Love Kindness" -

"Walk Humbly With God" -

For with these three things as your "rule and your rod"

All things worth having are yours to achieve

If you follow God's words and have FAITH TO BELIEVE!

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

"O ONE WITH GOD THE FATHER"

O one with God the Father
In majesty and might,
The brightness of His glory,
Eternal Light of light:
To gloomy haunts of darkness
Your rays are streaming down;
The shadows flee before You,
The world's true light has come.

Yet, Lord, we see but dimly;
O heav'nly Light, arise;
Dispel these mists that shroud us
And hide You from our eyes.
We long to track the footprints
Where You Yourself have trod;
We long to see the pathway
That leads to You our God.

O Jesus, shine around us
With radiance of Your grace;
O Jesus, turn upon us
The brightness of Your face.
We need no star to guide us,
As on our way we press,
If you will light our pathway,
O Son of righteousness.

Amen.

Lenten Worship service begins on Wednesday, February 17 at 7:30 p.m. Ash Wednesday is named for the practice of imposing ashes. The ancient symbol has validity in several aspects of our modern life. First, ashes remind us of God's condemnation of sin (Genesis 3:19). Second, in ancient times ashes were used in the absence of soap. Ash Wednesday the ashes are a penitential substitute for water as a reminder of our Baptism. Water both drowns and refreshes, ashes are a symbol of both death and renewal. Third, ashes remind us of the shortness of human life. The imposition of the ashes reminds us of the words of the burial service "We commit his/her body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust." These words will one day be spoken over each of us. Fourth and finally, ashes are a symbol of repentance. They are the outward sign of the inner penitence.

This year, we of the United family will follow an ancient practice that is being used by more congregations each year. Palm branches from the celebration of Palm Sunday last year will be burned on Shrove Tuesday, and ^{as} part of the Ash Wednesday liturgy, ashes will be imposed for those members desiring them. Also the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be offered at this service. Please bring in your palms from last year with you next Sunday when you come to worship.

Oh, wondrous type! Oh, vision fair
Of glory that the church may share.
Which Christ upon the mountain shows,
Where brighter than the sun He glows!

With Moses and Elijah nigh
Incarnate Lord holds converse high;
And from the cloud, the Holy One Bears record to the only Son.

With shining face and bright array,
Christ deigns to manifest today
What glory shall be theirs above
Who joy in God with perfect love.

Lenten Worship Services begin this Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Ash Wednesday is named for the practice of imposing ashes. The ancient symbol has validity in several aspects of our modern life. First, ashes remind us of God's condemnation of sin (Genesis 3:19). Second, in ancient times ashes were used in the absence of soap. Ash Wednesday the ashes are a penitential substitute for water as a reminder of our Baptism. Water both drowns and refreshes, ashes are a symbol of both death and renewal. Third, ashes remind us of the shortness of human life. The imposition of the ashes reminds us of the words of the burial service "We commit his/her body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust." These words will one day be spoken over each of us. Fourth and finally, ashes are a symbol of repentance. They are the outward sign of the inner penitence. This year, we of the United family will follow an ancient practice that is being used by more congregations each year. Palm branches from the celebration of Palm Sunday last year will be burned here on Tuesday and as a part of the Ash Wednesday liturgy, ashes will be imposed for those members desiring them. Also the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be offered at this service.

Prelude: "A Lamb Bears All Its Guilt Away"

*Processional Hymn 51

*Solemn Declaration

*Call to Worship: Responsive Reading Selection
19 (Page 571 in the Pew Hymnal)

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession (Responsively)

Pastor: Let us pray.

People: Most holy and merciful God; we confess to you and to one another, and to the whole communion of saints in heaven and on earth, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word and deed, and by what we have left undone.

Pastor: We have not loved You with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.

People: Have mercy on us, O God.

Pastor: We have been deaf to Your call to serve as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved Your Holy Spirit.

People: Have mercy on us, O God.

Pastor: We confess to You, O God, all our past unfaithfulness. The pride, hypocrisy, and impatience in our lives.

People: Our self-indulgent appetites and ways, and our exploitation of other people. We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Our anger at our own frustration, and envy of those more fortunate than ourselves.

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in our daily life and work.

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to commend the faith that is in us.

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Accept our repentance, O God, for the wrongs we have done. For our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty.

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Pastor: For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us.

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Pastor: For our waste and pollution of Your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us.

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Pastor: Restore us, O God, and let Your anger depart from us.

People: Hear us, O God, for Your mercy is great.

AMEN.

*Reception of Ashes

Responsive Prayer

Pastor: Accomplish in us, O God, the work of Your salvation,

People: That we may show forth Your glory.

Pastor: By the cross and passion of our Savior,

People: Bring us with all Your saints to the joy of Christ's resurrection.

Pastor: Almighty God, the creator and sustainer of our Savior Jesus Christ, does not desire the death of sinners, but that they may turn from their wickedness and live. Therefore we implore God to grant us true repentance and the Holy Spirit, that those things may please God which we do this day, that the rest of our life may be pure and holy, and that at the last we may come to God's eternal joy; through Jesus the Christ.

AMEN.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession:

God of all mercy, we confess before you and each other that we have been unfaithful to you. We lack love for our neighbors, we waste opportunities to do good, and we look the other way when You cry out to us in the suffering of our brothers and sisters in need. We are sincerely sorry for our sins, both those we commit deliberately and those we allow to overtake us. We ask your forgiveness and pray for strength that we may follow in Your way and love all Your people with that perfect love which casts out all fear, through Jesus Christ our Redeemer.

Amen.

BEFORE YOU CAN DRY ANOTHER'S TEARS -
YOU TOO MUST WEEP!

Let me not live a life that's free
From "The Things" that draw me close to Thee...
For how can I ever hope to heal
The wounds of others
I do not feel...
If my eyes are dry and I never weep,
How do I know when the hurt is deep...
If my heart is cold
and it never bleeds,
How can I tell what my brother needs...
For when ears are deaf
to the beggar's plea
And we close our eyes and refuse to see,
And we steel our hearts
and harden our mind,
And we count it a weakness
whenever we're kind,
We are no longer following The Father's Way
Or seeking His guidance from day to day..
For, without "crosses to carry"
and "burdens to bear",
We dance through a life
that is frothy and fair,
And "chasing the rainbow" we have no desire For "roads that are rough"
and "realms that are higher"...
So spare me no heartache
or sorrow, dear Lord,
For the heart that is burt
reaps the richest reward,
And God enters the heart
that is broken with sorrow,
To a Brighter Tomorrow.

He hath made every thing beautiful in his time.
Ecclesiastes 3:11

BLESSING OF THE PALMS

Leader: Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.

People: Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

Leader: Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with Your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts whereby You have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Reading of the Palm Sunday Lesson: St. Mark 11:1-11

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

Leader: It is right to praise You, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which You have redeemed us through Your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day He entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along His way. Let these branches be for us signs of His victory, and grant that we who bear them in His name may ever hail Him as our King, and follow Him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with You and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Amen.

Leader: Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

People: Hosanna in the highest.

Collect: Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first He suffered pain, and entered not into glory before He was crucified; mercifully grant that we, walking the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Dismissal

Leader: Let us go forth in Peace.

People: In the name of Christ.

Amen.

The Confession and Assurance

God Calls Us to Confession

Remember, O Lord, your great mercy and love,
for they are from of old,

Remember not the sins of our youth
and my rebellious ways;

According to your love remember us,
For you are good, O Lord...

For the sake of your name, O Lord, forgive our iniquity, though it is great...

Turn to us and be gracious to us,
for we are lonely and afflicted.

The troubles of our hearts have multiplied;
free us from our anguish.

Look upon our affliction and our distress and take away all our sins.

When Jesus was asked, "Lord, when did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?", he replied, "I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me."

Restrooms are available in the hallway outside the sanctuary and can be reached by exiting through the door by the organ. Coffee and cookies are also available throughout the 3 hours for those who wish to remain and visit after worshipping with us. Exit through the same doors and enter the room down the hall to your left.

Faith of our mothers,
Living still in cradle song and bedtime
prayer:

In nursery lore and fireside love,
Thy presence still pervades the air,

Faith of our mothers, loving faith,
We will be true to thee till death.

Faith of our mothers, loving faith,

Source of a finer, nobler race;

Faith of our mothers, loving faith,
We will be true to thee till death.

Your children. In our Savior's name we pray.

Lord, bless our homes with peace and love and laughter,

With understanding and with loyalty.

May we together follow Christ the Master
And know the blessing of His sov'reignty.

May every heart receive His loving spirit
And know the truth that makes life truly free;

Then, in that spirit may we live united,
And find in God our deep security.

Father, in gratitude for homes and loved ones,

We open now our hearts to all mankind.

Grant us Your spirit -- love for all our brothers --

So in Your peace may we our concord find.

People: Have pity on thy servants!
Pastor: Satisfy us in the morning with Thy steadfast love,
People: That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
Pastor: Make us glad as many days as Thou has afflicted us,
People: And as many years as we have seen evil.
Pastor: Let Thy work be manifest to Thy servants,

 be upon us,
People: And establish Thou the work of our hands upon us, yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it.

 We have confessed Christ as our Savior,
 Father, and claim to be His followers; but

 And grace my fears relieved;
 How precious did that grace appear
 The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares
 I have already come;
 This grace hath brought me safe thus far
 And grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years
 Bright shining as the sun,
 We've no less days to sing God's praise
 Than when we first begun.

Prelude: "We Gather Together" Held
*Processional Hymn:
"WE GATHER TOGETHER"

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing,
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing,
Sing praises to His name; He forgets not
His own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom
divine,
So from the beginning the fight we are winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, all glory be Thine.

We all do extol Thee, Thou Leader triumphant,
And pray that Thou still our defender
wilt be.
Let Thy congregation escape tribulation
Thy Name be ever praised!
O Lord, make us free!

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession:

Christmas is important to us, Father; but our joy is so temporary and superficial.
We hear the good news of peace; but we are not at peace with ourselves, or with You.
Forgive us when we celebrate the gift of Your Son, without receiving Him as our Savior. Fill us with joy which is genuine, growing out of our Lord's birth in our hearts. In His Name we pray. Amen.
