Lenten Worship Services begin Ash Wednesday,

February 8 at 7:30 p.m. Ash Wednesday is named for the practice of imposing ashes. The ancient symbol has validity in several aspects of our modern life. First, ashes remind us of God's condemnation of sin (Genesis 3:19). Second, in ancient times ashes were used in the absence of soap. Ash Wednesday the ashes are a penitential substitute for water as a reminder of our Baptism.. Water both drowns and refreshes, ashes are a symbol of both death and renewal. Third, ashes remind us of the shortness of human life. The imposition of the ashes reminds us of the words of the burial service "We commit his/her body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust." These words will one day be spoken over each of us. Fourth and finally, ashes are a symbol of repentance. They are the outward sign of the inner penitence. This year, we of the United family will follow an ancient practice that is being used by more congregations each year. Palm branches from the celebration of Palm Sunday last year will be burned here on Tuesday, February 7th and as a part of the Ash Wednesday liturgy, ashes will be imposed for those members desiring them. Also the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be offered at that service.

Last call for articles for the UNITED ENDEAVOR. We ask that you get your articles into the Church Office this week.

The Ladies' Aid Society is sponsoring a Sour Beef Luncheon and Supper, Wednesday, April 5th. Tickets will be $6.50 each and will be available soon. Carryouts also will be available.

membership here. Merely speak to Pastor Fair, any Council Person, Usher or call the Church Office.

If you would like to have your birthday announced in the Sunday Bulletin, please call the Church Office.

As you know, our heating system had to be overhauled. We had to spend $11,291.50 and so far we have had donations of $6,458.60 toward this debt. We hope and pray that we will be able to replenish the money we had to spend. Donations can be made in the form of Love Gifts, Memorials, etc. to this Fund and we have included a special envelope for your donation. Please give this urgent matter your kindest consideration.

We now have child care on Sunday mornings for small children of our church families so parents can attend the 10:30 a.m. Worship Service. The child care is free and Mrs. Carol Dorkman is in charge.

Our Annual Congregational Meeting will be held next Sunday, January 29, immediately following the late Worship Service, in Friendship Hall. We ask all that normally attend the 8 a.m. Worship Service to come back for this important meeting. Light refreshments will be served.

Lenten Worship Services begin Ash Wednesday, February 8 at 7:30 p.m. Ash Wednesday is named for the practice of imposing ashes. The ancient symbol has validity in several aspects of our modern life. First, ashes remind us of God's condemnation of sin (Genesis 3:19). Second, in ancient times ashes were used in the absence of soap. Ash Wednesday the ashes are a penitential substitute for water as a reminder of our Baptism. Water both drowns and refreshes, ashes are a symbol of both death and renewal. Third, ashes remind us of the shortness of human life. The imposition of the ashes reminds us of the words of the burial service "We commit his/her body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust". These words will one day be spoken over each of us. Fourth and finally, ashes are a symbol of repentance. They are the outward sign of the inner penitence. This year, we of the United family will follow an ancient practice that is being used by more congregations each year. Palm branches from the celebration of Palm Sunday last year will be burned here on Tuesday, February 7th as a part of the Ash Wednesday liturgy, ashes will be imposed for those members desiring them. Also the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be offered at that service.

The Urban Services Center #7, 2639 Fait Ave. offers the following services: Energy Assistance; Blood pressure screening; Property and Income Tax Preparation; Tutoring; Surplus Food Distribution; Pharmacy Assistance (Prescriptions for Drugs). Please call 396-9093 for details. ALL SERVICES ARE FREE.

The Ladies' Aid Society is sponsoring a Sour Beef Luncheon and Supper, Wednesday, April 5th. Tickets will be $6.50 each and will be available soon. Carryouts also will be available.

HELP! We need volunteers to help paint the ceiling in Friendship Hall. If you can spare a few hours any day of the week, please see Jim Tallagsen or call Millie in the Church Office to sign up. All materials will be supplied.

Welcome to our Worship Services today and always. If you are not an active member elsewhere, we encourage you to seek active membership here. Merely speak to Pastor Fair, any Council Person, Usher or call the Church Off.

Before Jesus the cross was a dark instrument of man's cruelty. Since Jesus, it has become the most revered symbol in the world.

Before Jesus, the cross was the method by which hatred and jealousy and enmity eliminated those they opposed. Since Jesus, it has become the method by which sacrificial compassion and love born of God reconciles those in enmity.

Before Jesus, men bowed down before the cross cringing, fearful, defeated, hopeless. Since Jesus, they rise with new faith, hope and love - empowered to face life and death.

On the Cross Jesus' body was broken and His life blood drained - an investment in nothing less than our redemption.

And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me is not worthy of me.

*Processional Hymn 51

*Solemn Declaration 482

*Call to Worship: Responsive Reading Selection 19 (Page 571 in the Pew Hymnal)

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession (Responsively):

Pastor: Let us pray.

People: Most holy and merciful God: we confess to You and to one another, and to the whole communion of saints in heaven and on earth, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word and deed, and by what we left undone.

Pastor: We have not loved You with all our heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others as we have been forgiven.

People: Have mercy on us, O God.

Pastor: We have been deaf to Your call to serve as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved Your Holy Spirit.

People: Have mercy upon us, O God.

Pastor: We confess to You, O God, all our past unfaithfulness. The pride, hypocrisy, and impatience of our lives,

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Our self indulgent appetites and ways and our exploitation of other people.

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Our anger at our own frustration and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts and our dishonesty in our daily life and work.

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Our negligence in prayer and worship and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,

People: We confess to You, O God.

Pastor: Accept our repentance, O God, for our neglect of human need and suffering and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Pastor: For all false judgements, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Pastor: For our waste and pollution of Your creation and our lack of concern for those who come after us,

People: Accept our repentance, O God.

Pastor: Restore us, O God, and let Your anger depart from us.

People: Favorably hear us, O God, for Your mercy is great. Amen.

*Reception of Ashes

Responsive Prayer

Pastor: Accomplish in us, O God, the work of Your salvation,

People: That we may show forth Your glory.

Pastor: By the cross and passion of our Savior,

People: Bring us with all Your saints to the joy of Christ's resurrection.

Pastor: Almighty God, the creator and sustainer of our Savior Jesus Christ, does not desire the death of sinners, but that they may turn from their wickedness and live. Therefore we implore God to grant us true repentance and the Holy Spirit, that those things may please God which we do this day, that the rest of our life may be pure and holy, and that at the last we may come to God's eternal joy; through Jesus the Christ.

Amen.

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come;
This grace hath brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

Prayer of Confession:

Almighty God, merciful Father; I, a troubled and penitent sinner, confess

A "Love Gift" has been given to the Church on the happy occasion of our 50th (Golden) Wedding Anniversary, April 29, 1989. Given from Mr. and Mrs. Edward and Margaret Wisner.

A "Love Gift" has been given to the Church for the Boiler Fund of $200.00 from the Church Choirs.

WHAT IS LOVE?

It's silence when your words would hurt,
It's patience when your neighbor's curt.
It's deafness when the scandal flows,
It's thoughtfulness for another's woes.
It's promptness when stern duty calls,
It's courage when misfortune falls.

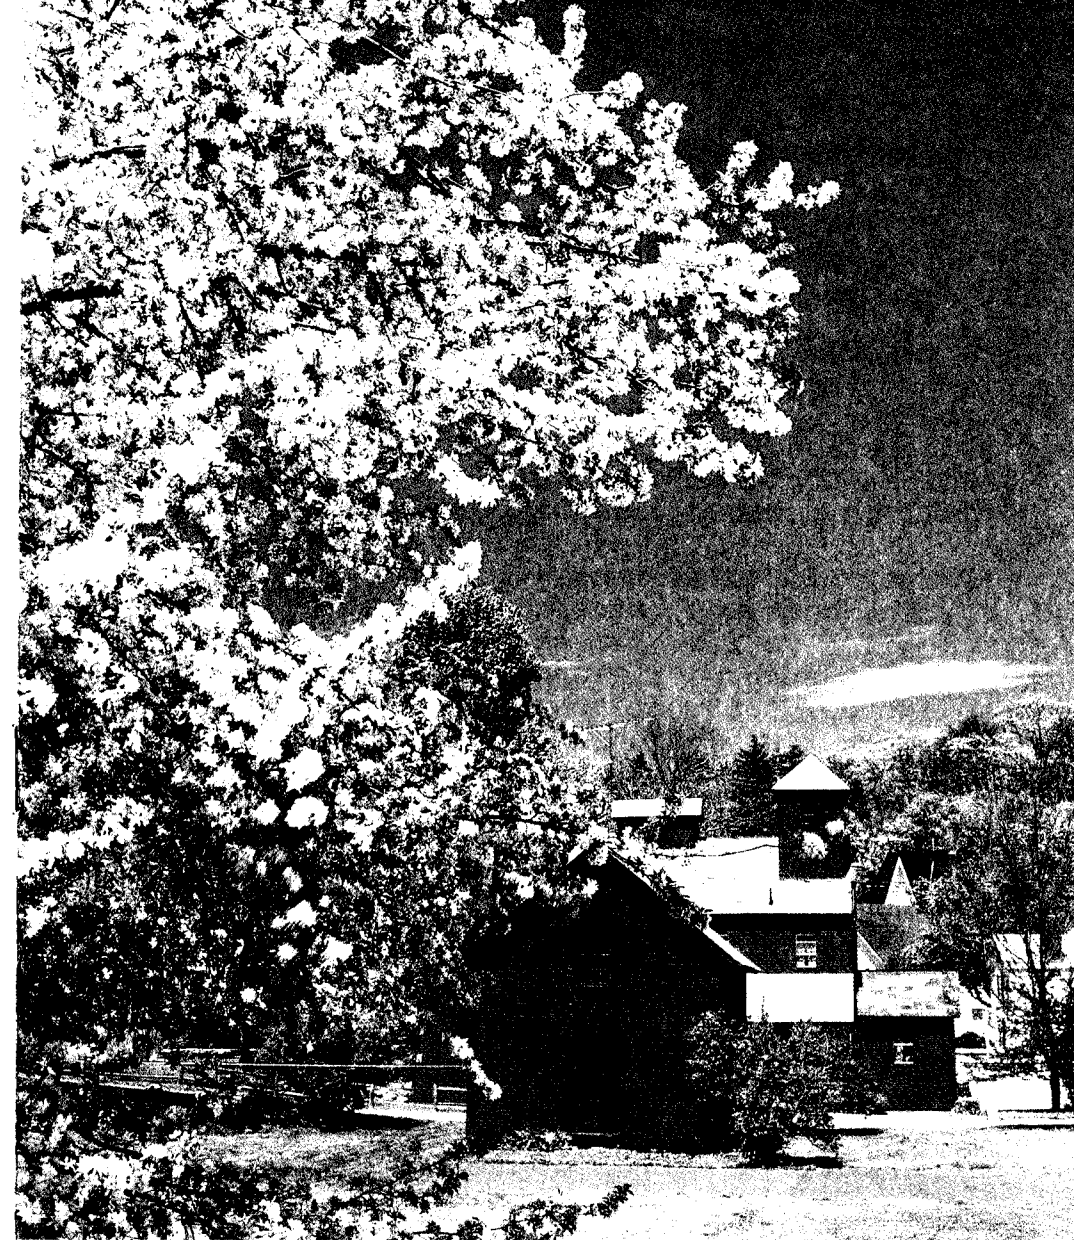

Many thanks to Council Member, Mrs. Catherine Young who has been changing the message on the lower Bulletin Board outside the Church each week.

Many thanks to Mrs. Sharon Daniloski who has been coming into the Church Office each Monday and Tuesday to lend a willing hand to Millie.

I'M YOUR HOLIDAY REMINDER ANGEL

I'm here to remind you that while you're out of town or on vacation or business, your church's expenses go right on. At home or away, make a sincere Christian effort to see that your offertory envelope is filled and either mailed or contributed each Sunday.

Make a habit of using each envelope each week. It makes good sense for you, and better sense for your church. A commitment fulfilled, even if you're not present in your church, is your assurance of your faith in God. Let my gentle reminder be a step in that direction.

*O Lord, how manifold are thy works!
In wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

O Jesus, Lord and Saviour
I give myself to Thee,

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is the one true Church, apostolic and universal, whose holy faith let us now declare: WE BELIEVE IN THE ONE GOD, maker and ruler of all things, Father of all men, the source of all goodness and beauty, all truth and love.

WE BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST, God manifest in the flesh, our teacher, example, and Redeemer, the Savior of the world.

WE BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT, God present with us for guidance, for comfort, and for strength.

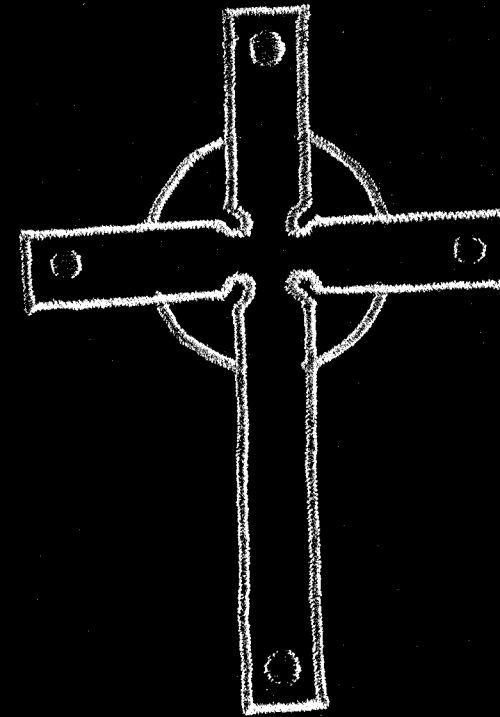

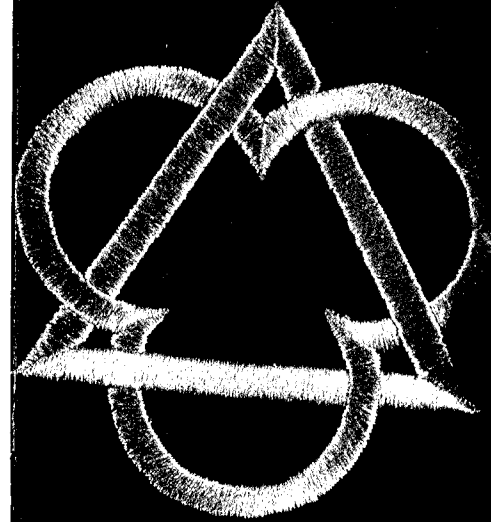

WE BELIEVE IN THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS, in the life of love and prayer, and in grace equal to every need.

WE BELIEVE IN THE WORD OF GOD contained in the Old and New Testaments as the sufficient rule both of faith and of practice.

WE BELIEVE IN THE CHURCH as the fellowship for worship and for service of all who are united to the living Lord.

WE BELIEVE IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD as the divine rule in human society, and in the brotherhood of man under the fatherhood of God.

WE BELIEVE IN THE FINAL TRIUMPH OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, and in the life everlasting.

Tune #93

1. Your hand, O Lord, in days of old
Was strong to heal and save.
It triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave.
To You they came, the blind, the dumb,
The palsied and the lame,
The lepers in their misery,
The sick with fevered frame.
2. And lo, Your touch brought life and health,
Gave speech and strength and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Revealed You, Lord of light.
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as before,
In crowded street, by beds of pain,
As by Gennes' ret's shore.
3. Oh, be our great deliv'rer still,
The Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless,
With Your lifegiving breath.
To hands that work and eyes that see
Give wisdom's healing pow'r.
That whole and sick and weak and strong
May praise You evermore.

end.
And He lives in you and he lives in me
And the three of us together that's community;
What a very happy state of mind we're in.
For we're alive in Him.
I am one in you. You are one with me.
But we still retain our individuality.
And we wouldn't have it any other way
And there still is something else we'd like to say,
What a happy place this whole world
would be;
If we all resolved to live in peace and harmony.
What a very happy state we'd all be in
For we're alive in Him.

"I will praise the Lord no matter what happens.
I will constantly speak of His glories and grace.
I will boast of all His kindness to me.
Let all who are discouraged take heart.
Let us praise the Lord together, and exalt His Name.
For I cried to Him and He answered me.
He freed me from all my fears.
Others too were radiant at what He did for them.
Theirs was no downcast look of rejection.
This poor man cried to the Lord - and the Lord heard him and saved him out of his troubles.
For the Angel of the Lord guards and rescues all who reverence Him.
Oh, put God to the test, & see how kind He is!
See for yourself the ways His mercies shower down on all who trust in Him.

Amen.

and great shall be the peace of thy children.

SERVICE OF DEDICATION

Overhills Center

Carriage House

Organ Prelude - Mr. Eric Miller

*Call to Worship - The Rev. Curtis Clare

Serve God with gladness!

Come before God's presence with singing!

Enter God's gates with thanksgiving and God's courts with praise!

Give thanks to God, and bless God's name!
For the Holy One is good;

*God's steadfast love endures forever,
and God's faithfulness is to all generations.*

*Hymn: "O Thou Whose Hand" (insert)

Introduction of Guests and Participants

Responsive Reading

"God says, 'I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams'." (Acts 2:17)

With thanksgiving for those who have envisioned and dreamed, we gather this day. With gratitude we celebrate the fruition of those visions and dreams in our midst.

... "And the master replied, 'Well done good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness'." (Matthew 25:21)

Recognizing that we have been given much and that we are called to use our gifts responsibly, we give thanks for this property and its structures. May the uses of these facilities continue to be faithful and prudent, that they might bring happiness to the Master.

"Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen."
(Hebrews 11:1)

It is by faith that we live in every age-and it is because of the faith of past generations and present companions that we are brought in times of celebration.

"So faith by itself, if it has no works is dead." (James 2:17)

Behold the works of faith: Stone and mortar, board and nail, paint and polish-blended together so that new signs of the faithfulness of God may break forth in the lives of people.

Unison: To God the Eternal One is our praise, to God the Holy One is our thanksgiving. Amen.

Litany of Dedication - Mr. Stephen Lauer
We gather on land once in the care of Indian tribes: the dwelling place for animals of forest and glen; terrain criss-crossed by the pathways of ancient gatherers and traders.

CHOIR: For their respect for "Mother Earth" and their sensitivity to "The Great Spirit" we are grateful.

We gather on land cleared and tilled, dotted with fields for crops and gardens for beauty.

CONG: We recognize the labors of our forbears, the names of those whom we do not know, who used the land for the preservation of life.

We gather in this place which give birth to the vision of a stately mansion, a place of comfort where families could dwell in security.

CHIOR: For the dreams and visions of those who built these structures on solid foundations, we give thanks.

We are mindful of the vision and forethought of the members of this congregation who transformed this structure from a dwelling for a family into a sanctuary for worship and a place of learning for many families.

CONG: We give thanks for the leaders and people of St. John's Church in past generations. Their wise decisions, prudent counsel, hard work and generous gifts redirected the purposes of this land and its buildings.

Recognizing that dreaming dreams and seeing visions is never locked in the past, we affirm that as people of faith we have a constant challenge to dream and envision about our unfolding future.

ALL: We give thanks for gifts, skills, talents, and wealth, which shared, have now in our day given new substance to the visions of faith.

With joy we embrace the truth that "new occasions teach new duties," thus we dedicate these buildings to new uses, that they might be used to accomplish the purposes of God as instruments of mission in the world.

We set apart the offices on the second floor of this Overhills Center as the headquarters of the Central Atlantic Conference.

(Central Atlantic Conference) Here plans will be made and policy decided that will affect the life and programs of the churches of our wider family of faith. Here mission will be envisioned and challenges met. Here communications will be generated that bind us together in covenant and fellowship. Here decisions will be implemented that will guide our common witness to the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

ALL: For adequate space and comfortable offices which promote efficiency, we give thanks to you, O God.

We set apart the rooms on the first floor of this Overhills Center as the counseling rooms of the Suburban Pastoral Counseling Center.

(Suburban Pastoral Counseling Center) In these rooms of privacy and security problems can be shared, times of pain and growth can be faced, and emotional victories celebrated. Here wise counsel can be given and the tangled threads of life rewoven into the fabric of meaningful living.

ALL: For these quiet places of reflection and introspection where the reality of God's grace can be discerned and supportive encouragement given, we give thanks to you, O God.

We set apart the offices on the first floor of this Overhills Center as the headquarters of the Maryland Head Injury Foundation.

(Maryland Head Injury Foundation) In these offices records can be kept, public policy discussed and influenced so as to bring about a greater measure of safety to all people. Here support for individuals and families can be arranged and the resources of hope and encouragement shared.

ALL: For this space that is convenient and spacious, providing for efficiency and coordination that brings hope and help to others, we give thanks to you, O God.

We set apart the first floor rooms of this Overhills Mansion as a place for meetings, fellowship, and the celebration of the high points in person's lives.

(Whitehouse Caterers) In these gracious spaces the fellowship of loved ones can be enjoyed. Here covenants of faithfulness can be made, reaffirmed, and celebrated in the context of table fellowship and joyful festivity. May this space of beauty and heritage be a place where citizens of the community may gather for learning, laughter, and happiness.

ALL: For these stately rooms of warmth and beauty where once a family lived and shared and now extended families and kindred folk celebrate the joyous times of life, we give you thanks, O God.

We set apart the Carriage House, once a structure of utilitarian purpose, once a family dwelling place, now a retreat center.

(For the Carriage House) Here may people gather for rest and re-creation, retreating from the pace of life, to be nurtured, to plan, to play, and to re-focus their energies. Here may generations to come find a place to study, experience wholesome fellowship, and grow in their spiritual pilgrimage.

ALL: For this dwelling of quiet and comfort, rest and retreat that provides refreshment, contemplation and shalom, we give thanks to you, O God.

For these buildings with solid foundations and strong walls that have seen a variety of uses and still stand firm:

We thank you, O God

For the doors that can be closed to give security and privacy or opened to communicate hospitality and welcome.

CHOIR We thank you, O God.

For the windows that receive light and look out on spacious tranquility.

CONG: We thank you, O God.

For the furnishings and equipment housed within these structures that enable users to work with efficiency and comfort:

We thank you, O God.

For these places of work and leisure, reflection and growth:

We thank you, O God.

For the interactions of people that take place within these buildings:

We pray for courage and patience, courtesy and understanding to abound.

For your word, O God which continually calls us to understand that the church is not a building, but people:

Help us not to confuse buildings with your purpose and keep us ever faithful to your purposes that we might always have the capacity to dream dreams and to see visions that come from you, O Gracious Spirit. Amen.

IMPORTANT NOTICE OF UNITED'S FINANCES:

We regret to bring to your attention that the Church's income for the year is falling far behind our budget. We budgeted $105,647. and year to date, September 30, offerings, memorials and love gifts have been a total of $60,151.

At this point, our expenses over receipts is $14,677. This is eating into our Savings Accounts. Our Church Council has made every effort to keep expenses as low as possible but because of many problems with our boilers plumbing, etc. we are running into a deficit.

It is a trying time for all we know, but if you can find it possible to increase your contributions to the Church, we can overcome this mammoth hurdle. Will you do your part and work with us to make our beloved United what it has been for the past 116 years?

Prayerfully, William Voelker, Church Council President and all other Council Members.

A CELEBRATION OF PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

November 23, 1989 10:00 a.m.

Prelude: "We Gather Together" Held
*Processional Hymn:
"WE GATHER TOGETHER"

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing,
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing,
Sing praises to His Name; He forgets
not His own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom
divine,
So from the beginning the fight we
are winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, all glory be Thine.

We all do extol Thee, Thou Leader
triumphant,
And pray that Thou still our defender
wilt be.
Let Thy congregation escape tribulation
Thy Name be ever praised!
O Lord, make us free!
